

To all Comrades:

You are the proletariat. What does this mean? You may ask, and rightfully ask so. Well, you are the most revolutionary class. You are the most progressive class. You are the face of change, of the new world order. You have survived every economic revolution, whether it be slavery, feudalism, now capitalism. Your conditions tell the story of a hard-working unified community, whose work and labor kept and keep the globe spinning.

Your oppressors are invisible, yet they dominate your life. They suck the freedom, the liberty, the humanity from you and force you to slave away under their terms. They are the bourgeois, the rich, the capital-holders.

Once the general proletariat realizes this, they make a call for action. Lead by a vanguard they seize the means of production and establish a proletarian democracy. You will rule! These people are you! You will bring forth the greatest social change. You will overturn society by its roots and plant a new seed. You will tend this seed with the greatest care, and maybe it will sprout a beautiful flower. Does this mean that your task is over? No, you must take care of the flower. If it withers place it in sunlight. If its foundations crumble provide it with water. You will tend your creation until it has matured, and you will reap the fruits of your labor.

The greatest, plumpest fruit, communist society, will be complete. No longer will you be a cog in the great capitalist machine, but you will be your own, autonomous individual. You will have a community to be a part of. No longer will you feel alone, no longer will your work end in dissatisfaction, no longer will you be stripped of who you are, and who you want to be.

To this end I proclaim: Put aside your differences! Put aside minor disagreements! You all have a shared interest, that is your collective liberation. Hear no cries of “Black power! White power! American power! African power! Male power!” but rather “Worker power!” We are all united in this matter, we are all humans, we are all workers.

Let us exclaim with glory: “Power to all the workers! Long live freedom and democracy!”
